

United Way of Eastern Utah Youth Service Scholarship

Sally Koch once wrote, "Great opportunities to help others seldom come, but small ones surround us every day."

United Way of Eastern Utah is an organization that strives to make the most of those small opportunities in hopes of making a large impact in the community. This year the United Way of Eastern Utah is recognizing those students who have volunteered to help make the most of those opportunities. We are pleased to offer up to 5 one-time scholarships to high school seniors:

2 Carbon High School seniors

2 Emery County High School seniors

1 Pinnacle Canyon Academy School senior

1 Green River High School senior

These scholarships will be available to students who have made a commitment to volunteering.

Eligibility

Applicants must participate in the annual Day of Caring event in September, and also two other service opportunities provided by the United Way of Eastern Utah or the organization's funded partners. These events can include but are not exclusive to:

Martin Luther King Service Day, United Way of Eastern Utah Angel Tree Program, United Way Day of Action, The People's Garden at Carbon County Food Bank, Emery County Food Bank, USU Sun Center, Green River Epicenter, Green River Community Center, Boy and Girls Club of Carbon County, Southeastern Utah Head Start, Community Clothing Closet in Price, or any qualifying service project approved by the United Way of Eastern Utah.

Volunteer Verification Form

Provided is a volunteer verification form (please make copies), these forms are a required part of the scholarship application and must be filled out and signed by the person overseeing the program or project you are volunteering for.

Deadlines for applications must be received by April 11, 2019. Only complete applications with supporting documents will be accepted. If the committee feels necessary, an interview session will be held as part of the application process.
